IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Brodhead will hold a fair three days commencing Aug. 21.
Wm. Young was appointed postmaster at Baldwin, Marion county.
Samuel H. Bryant, a prominent citizen of Burnside, died last week.
Deputy Sheriff Mack Wilson, of Bell county, accidentally shot his hand off. Gov. Bradley has fully determined to locate in Louisville and practice law.
A $10,000 dormitory is to be built for Union College at Barbourville this summer.
The school census of Polaski shows that there are 11,176 or 189 more than last year.
A post-office has been established at Enfield, Boyle county, with G. W. Crane postmaster.
The Danville tax rate has been fixed at 70c; a slight increase on account of the sewer system.
The new oil well, No. 2, at Sunnybrook, is said to be pumping out 500 barrels of green oil daily.
A stock company is in process of organization for the purpose of boring oil wells near Junction City.
L. D. S. Patton has sold his stock of undertaker's goods at Somerset to Girdler Bros., of that town.
Judy Barbridge stabbed George Rexroat to death at Columbia in an altercation over a game of craps.
There are 6,184 white school children in Madison, three less than last year. The colored children number 1,221.
Rip's largest distillery at Tyrone has shut down, having made 35,734 barrels of whiskey this season. The other house will run on indefinitely.
Citizens' National Bank of Danville vs. Forman's assignee, Boyle, was reversed by the court of appeals; Judges Guffy, Burdum and Hobson dissenting.
At Corbin Saturday night Andy Cox, of Knox county, was killed by Marshal Wilder after Cox had fatally wounded him while resisting arrest for the shooting of David Brannan.
A special grand jury for the purpose of investigating the disappearance of an indictment against one Napier has returned an indictment against Attorney Charles Green, son of Judge J. M. Green, of Pineville, charging him with the theft.
The court of appeals reversed the case of Farris vs. the Commonwealth from Knox county because the Commonwealth's attorney failed to read the indictment to the jury. Farris was indicted for selling liquor in a local option county.
The Edinburg III, Herald contains a beautiful notice of the death of the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. White, formerly of this county. The little fellow was a nephew of Mr. Isaiah White, one of our cleverest citizens, and was an unusually bright and handsome boy.
The handsome residence of Mr. M. J. Farris, in Otter Addition, which is being remodeled, will be ready for occupancy by the first of July, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Farris will move in from their suburban home. It will be one of the most stately homes in Danville and probably one of the most elaborately furnished in Central Kentucky.—Advocate.
The board of trustees of the Deaf and Dumb Institute at Danville elected Superintendent Rogers and the faculty at present in charge. G. E. Wiseman resigned as treasurer and was succeeded by D. C. Fox. A committee was appointed consisting of J. L. Allen, John H. Welsh, J. A. Cheek and C. C. Fox to go before the Legislature at the next session and work for an appropriation of $75,000.
If the people of Stanford and Lincoln county saw through a thin veil of egotism into the true character of David W. Vandever, they would be one man with unfeigned sorrow over his loss as they bury his remains to Buffalo cemetery last Monday. No heart of tenderer impulses beat within the breast of any citizen; no more generous hand was ever extended to his fellow man in need of sympathy and other aid. Especially was this manifested toward young men bereft of parental protection and guidance. Many a man, including this writer, owes to D. W. Vandever's aid and counsel a life long debt of affection and gratitude.—F. J. Campbell in Somerset Journal.
A GENTLE HINT.
In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sun—often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill and perhaps death by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Sore Throat, Croup, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Get a sample bottle free from Penny, Stanford, Ky. Regular size, 75c. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

HUSTONVILLE.

Jesse Routt has bought the stock of goods from W. C. Greening at Moreland.
Have Jerry Adams make you one of those flannel suits. They are cool, neat and cheap.
Several of our young people will attend the opening ball at Crab Orchard Springs Friday night.
Howard Lammiz has returned from a trip to Ohio and Indiana, where he did the pitching for the Centro College base ball team.
The Junction City base ball team played a game with our boys here Friday, Hustonville winning by a score of 13 to 9. The features of the game was the pitching of Jim Yowell, who struck out 18 men.
Miss Nell Hopper, Dr. O. S. Williams and A. J. Adams represented Hustonville at the Danville hop last week. Miss Nell Hopper left a few days since to spend quite a while with friends in Cincinnati. Hawkins Bishop has returned home from Lexington, where he has been attending Kentucky University. W. C. Greening spent a part of last week in Cincinnati buying goods. Miss Jessie Powell visited Danville friends last week.
Miss Edna Cannitz left Friday to spend a month with relatives and friends in Louisville. Miss Mary A. Carpenter, who has been attending school in Kansas City, returned home last week, much to the delight of her many friends. Miss Mattie Rae Adams, of Greenville, Texas, has arrived to spend the summer with relatives here. We note that several Stanford young men were in our little city last Sunday. There seems to be quite a great deal of attraction here for the Stanford boys. Mr. Lafon Carpenter, of Harrodsburg, was here last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams have moved from here to their new home in Danville. Miss Angie Carpenter is visiting friends at Paris and North Middletown. Dr. J. C. Barker has returned after a prosperous and pleasant trip to Mill Springs.

MATRIMONIAL.

Scott Gillispe and Miss Margaret Lewis eloped from Somerset to Hustonville, Tenn., and were married.
It is reported in Washington that Senator Dewey will be married this summer to a widow who is now abroad.
Hugh Tevis, who died at Yokonama while on his wedding tour, was a son of the late multi-millionaire, Lloyd Tevis, formerly of Kentucky, who died at San Francisco.
Mr. A. J. Overstreet, of Jessamine county, and Miss Rebecca J. Spoonamore, of this city, treated their friends to a genuine surprise on the evening of the 8th instant. Mr. Overstreet drove over to Stanford late that afternoon, hastily secured a license, summoned Rev. W. E. Arnold to his assistance, and returning to the residence of Col. T. P. Hill, where Miss Spoonamore has made her home for the past three years, as the clock struck 10 they were made man and wife. Outside of the little circle of friends, who had been summoned to witness the ceremony, very few had any intimation of the marriage until the next day. Miss Spoonamore was one of our best women and Mr. Overstreet is an excellent christian gentleman. The A. J. joins their many friends in wishing long life and great happiness.

UNNECESSARY LOSS OF TIME.

Mr. W. S. Whedon, Cashier of the First National Bank of Winterset, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him and he is again at his work." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

As illustrative of true and broad catholicity the Louisville Times remarks: Yesterday a Protestant governor, fresh from his first ride on the Masonic goat, was the guest of honor at a Trappist monastery and one of the many good addresses called forth by the occasion was delivered by the Trappist representative of the Gentile Louisville Times.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physician. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Kentucky Chautauqua, Lexington, June 25 to July 5. Low rates, Williamstown to Junction City, good to return until July 5th. Ask ticket agents for particulars. W. C. Rinearson, G. P. A.

MISS THEO HEMPHILL.
Lancaster's entry in the Beazley & Co. elocutionary contest at Walton's Opera House, June 21, is the pretty daughter of Judge James C. Hemphill and is well up in the art of elocution. She will go into the contest with a large backing, for Lancaster people are ever determined to excel. Miss Hemphill comes from a family of handsome women and is no exception to the rule. Many of her friends have already decided that Miss Theo is entitled to the first prize and can't see how she can fail to win it.

LANCASTER.

Mrs. J. M. Farris is very ill at her mother's, Mrs. Joe Bardside's, in the country.
The ladies of the W. C. T. U., held prayer services at the fall Sunday afternoon. A large number were present and we trust, much good done.
Our meeting at the Christian church will continue through next week. A great deal of interest is being manifested in these services and a good crowd is always in attendance. The singing of the large choir under the supervision of Prof. J. W. Wilcox, of Indianapolis, is excellent, the songs each night being illustrated by stereopticon views that are well worth gazing to see. Our pastor, A. R. Moore, has been giving us some of the most interesting and stirring sermons heard for a long time. Go and aid in the good work. It will do you good and may help win some poor soul to Christ.
Miss Laura Smith is on the sick list. W. T. Short, of Mt. Vernon, spent several days at the Garrard Hotel. Mrs. John Daddarar, of the Lawson vicinity, is very ill. Mrs. R. Zimmer and daughter, F. Le, are visiting in Cincinnati. Miss Sallie D. Tillet is visiting Mrs. Harry Aldridge, at Marksburg. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stormes have gone to Buffalo, N. Y., to attend the Pan-American Exposition. Mrs. George Evans, who has been sick for some time, is no better. Miss Lizze Beazley, of Crab Orchard, is visiting her brother, Dr. W. A. Beazley. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Haselden left Saturday for Cincinnati, where they will remain a few days, before going to Buffalo to attend the exposition.

The Louisville Commercial Club and Board of Trade will arrive here on the afternoon of June 10th and be royally received by our merchants. At the meeting of our commercial club on Tuesday evening the following committee on collection of fees and dues was appointed: R. Kinnaird, J. Joseph and W. B. Mason. A special reception committee, consisting of the following gentlemen was appointed: Senator Geo. T. Farris, chairman, J. W. Elmore, W. I. Williams, W. O. Rigney, J. F. Postal, R. H. Tomlinson and J. M. Logan. Mayor Kinnaird will deliver the key to the city and preparation will be made to entertain our guests in a manner befitting the high standard of our town.

The funeral of Miss Lela Ward, whose death has been mentioned, was attended by a large number of friends and relatives of the family at the Methodist church here Friday afternoon. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, consisting chiefly of roses and lilies. She was the oldest daughter of Wm. Ward and was a lovable young lady. She had been a member of the Methodist church for a number of years and was fully prepared to answer the call of her maker. For a long time she had been a sufferer from that dread disease, consumption, and was truly glad to leave all pain behind and go to meet her mother, who had preceded her to the Promised Land by several years. A beautiful and appropriate sermon was delivered by Rev. W. E. Arnold, of Stanford, after which the remains were borne to the cemetery and laid to rest. How sad to see one so young taken away, yet how blessed to know she is now "asleep in Jesus" and free from earthly suffering.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

THE salary of a postmaster is regulated by the revenues of his office, which are mainly obtained by the sale of stamps. In order to increase his salary the postmaster at Louisville put runners on the streets in March to implore his friends to buy in large quantities. One firm bought $1,500 worth and by hook and crook, the receipts reached for that month the requisite amount for a raise. But the government wasn't to be fooled in this way and the postmaster's efforts are likely to fail. The receipts for April and May falling off 40 to 50 per cent., the officials began to "smell a mouse" and the salary will likely remain as it is. Your Uncle Sam is sometimes a pretty hard man to fool.

THE Louisville Board of Trade, 100 strong, is arranging for a visit to the bluegrass cities, including Stanford, reaching here probably on the 19th. A royal welcome will doubtless be extended to the visitors and steps taken at once by the officials to entertain them. Committees should be appointed and put to work at once to arrange a program and raise the money for its execution. It may prove a good investment to give the gentlemen a true idea of our many natural advantages, even leaving out of the question the obligation to show those within our gates the courtesies befitting their calling and the necessity of maintaining our reputation as the true dispensers of Kentucky hospitality.

It is said to be Fugitive Taylor's greatest desire, save to keep himself from being tried and hung for conspiracy in the death of Gov. Goebel, to circulate largely in the democratic strongholds of Kentucky republican papers that yell loudest for "civil liberty." He says if he ever gets able he expects to pay at the rate of five cents a copy for every extra "civil liberty" organ circulated in the First Congressional district in his interest, or in the interest of the "Browder" side-show.

BUT for the Tillman-McLaurin embargo, not many of us would have known the name of the governor of South Carolina, rather peculiar as it is. Gov. McSweeney seems to be a right sharp sort of a fellow himself and quick to grasp an opportunity to take the centre of the stage. His letters to the principals in the row show that the Palmetto State would still have a pretty good representative even if both of them were put on the list of statesmen out of a job.

PATTERNING after Indiana's pig-headed executive, the governor of Wisconsin refused to honor the requisition of the governor of Tennessee for E. A. Averbach, wanted at Clarksville, for larceny of $500 worth of jewelry. Wisconsin seems to want some notoriety as a safe retreat for fugitives, jealous no doubt of Hoosierdom.

AN Indiana preacher has just been sentenced to the penitentiary for a year and fined $1,000 for passing counterfeit nickels. Since the Hoosier State became the refuge and harbor of assassins, the trail of the serpent seems to hang over all the people. Even the preachers are drifting to the demimonde bow wows.

THIS handsome compliment to Mark Hanna ought to entitle Congressman Grosvenor to a seat in the Senate, or something better. He says: "There has never been a time in the country's history when conditions would so justify the election of a president to a third term as in the case of McKinley."

W. C. WHITNEY, the millionaire turfman-statesman, "set 'em up" to $8,000 of his friends in celebration of his horse winning the English Derby. He must have an eye to the presidency several years hence and realizes via what route the average man's heart is reached.

POLITICAL.

An attempt will be made in the Virginia constitutional convention to disfranchise illiterate voters.

H. Cook Faulkner, of Barbourville, who used to be a democrat, is one of the rads who wants to be circuit judge of the Clay district.

The democratic Senatorial convention of the 14th district split at Jackson, and each of the two factions nominated a candidate for State Senator.

James T. Shackelford, of Richmond, will be transferred to the position of storekeeper and gauger and will be succeeded by R. M. Brown, of London. Capt. W. E. Bell, deputy collector in the Danville office, goes to Lawrenceburg to succeed C. W. Petty as deputy collector. His place will be filled by L. E. Rue.

W. P. Walton is now in some degree editor and proprietor of three newspapers, all semi-weekly. This record is excelled only by that of Brer Ben Deering, who, though editor of three newspapers and pastor of two churches out in Missouri, found time to discover Kentucky's long-misled State treasurer, "Dick" Tate, in the person of an Argentine visitor to a St. Louis exposition.—Louisville Times editorial.

An attempt to recapture the supplies failed.

WENT TO SLEEP.—Charles B. Bebburn, of Mt. Vernon, a freight brakeman on the L. & N., was sent out near Lilly to flag an approaching train which did not arrive for some time. During the time he went to sleep on the track and the expected train arrived and knocked him from the track, seriously injuring him.

THE postoffice at Hustonville does lots of business if a correspondent from that place knows whereof he speaks. He says: "Over 5,000 letters passed through our postoffice in seven days recently. This count did not include those stopping here. Mail is distributed for 15 offices south and west that are reached by hack lines."

IT was no trouble for Lancaster's base ball nine to defeat all of the visiting teams during the graded school tournament, but it met a Waterloo when it ran up against our club here Saturday afternoon. Stanford won four to two as easy as shooting fish. James Carpenter was our good twirler and George Florence caught him like a veteran. Wearon Hughes had a finger badly hurt during the game.

THE elocutionary contest given by the Silver Crescent Club Friday night proved a pleasing entertainment and a rather profitable one to the members of the club. The candelabra, or first prize, was won by Miss Hattie Snowden, of Lexington, whose subject was "The Martyred Mother." Miss Joe A. Beld, of this place, won the second prize, a handsome silver chafing dish, and Miss Gertrude Irvin, of Richmond, the third, a silver goblet. The program was liberally interspersed with vocal and instrumental music, which was well rendered. Dr. W. D. Tardiff was chairman and Prof. E. L. Stepp presented the prizes. Rev. J. W. Hagin and Attorneys L. R. Hughes and J. Richard Bush were the judges.

CHURCH MATTERS.

More than half of the proposed $20,000,000 "20th Century Thank-offering to the Lord" have been raised by the Methodists.

"Uncle Jos" Hopper's meeting at Silver Creek Chapel, Madison county, resulted in 20 additions and a general awakening of the church members.

Eld. J. G. Livingston is conducting an interesting meeting at Logan's Creek church, near Sautley, which will continue through this week. There have been several additions.

The temperance meeting at the Methodist church Sunday night was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. Standing room was at a premium and many were turned away unable to gain admission. The young people of the Epworth League are to be congratulated on the success of their service in the interest of this great cause. There is a strong temperance sentiment in this community and the large crowd and deep interest manifested were but indications of the strength of this sentiment.

HUBBLE.

B. W. Givens killed 32 cut worms from under one stalk of corn.

Elder A. R. Moore will fill his pulpit at the Christian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

J. C. Eubanks sold some fat hogs to J. C. Johnson for $10. L. G. Hubble sold to G. S. Gaines some hay in the stack at 55c.

Mrs. Bettie Walls, of Garrard, who has been at Joseph Price Infirmary being treated for cancer, is with her sister, Mrs. A. L. Spunamore, and is doing nicely.

The school house contract has been let to Laban Withers for $155, ready for the furniture. T. C. Rankin agreeing to collect the tax free of charge, will meet the patrons here Saturday, June 16th.

R. P. Fox, Sr., a well known Madison county horseman, is dead. A wife and several children survive.

THE Danville Elks have bought the handsome Johnstone Sanitarium for $7,750 and will convert it into a lodge room and Elks' Home. The building cost Dr. A. W. Johnstone $13,000 and is one of the handsomest buildings in Central Kentucky.

STOCK REDUCTION.—About $80,000 of the $100,000 stock of the Lincoln National Bank voted Saturday to reduce the capital to $50,000 and curtail the directory to five members. Dr. J. H. Owsley, cashier, says that in conformity with the vote and action by the directors, each stockholder will be paid 3 per cent. dividend on his entire holdings July 1 and 50 per cent. of his stock in cash. The banking capital of Stanford is now only $100,000, whereas a few years ago it was $150,000. Heavy taxes is given as the reason for the great reduction.

STEPHENSON ARRESTED.—George Stephenson, who, with Thomas Fish, is charged with the murder of Joseph Whitley, colored, at Crab Orchard in 1887, was placed in jail Sunday, having been arrested at Fulton, by Chief of Police L. C. Robertson, who brought him here. Fish, it will be remembered, was arrested several weeks ago and it is likely that both will be tried at this time of court. Stephenson married near Fulton and moved to Texas, but came back some six or seven months ago and engaged in farming, where he was doing well and making a good citizen. He could have easily evaded arrest, for he had heard of Mr. Fish's arrest for the crime and also that he was being hunted. There was a reward of $250 for him, of which Marshal J. A. Shannon, who worked up the case, will get a good share.

KIDNED BY A MULE.—Louis, little son of James T. Jones, was kicked in the face by a mule Saturday. Fortunately he escaped serious injury.

WALTER C. GREENING will make a city out of Hustonville yet. He is getting ready to build a substantial brick store-house next to his store there and has commenced on a nice cottage on his lot on West Main Street. Walter is a hustler from away back.

In less than 20 days the stamping of bank checks will be a thing of the past, for which let us give thanks. Those of our patrons who have been putting off the payment of their accounts because they did not want to pay for a revenue stamp can soon remit with impunity.

J. W. PERRIN thinks there is oil under his store. Every now and then the pavement just in front of his door is covered with a greasy fluid that comes up between the bricks. There is little doubt that there is oil in and around Stanford and if it is found in quantities we may all be rich yet.

THE will of Mr. David W. Vandever, dated March 21, 1901, was probated yesterday. It leaves all of his property, real and personal, to his wife during her life and to be divided equally between their three daughters, Mrs. W. E. Varnon, Mrs. Mattie Kirby and Miss Nannie Vandever, at her death. Craig Jackson's will, leaving his property to his wife, was also probated. This and a few settlements was the extent of yesterday's business in the county court.

FAIR DATE CHANGED.—The Hustonville fair date has been changed from July 21, 22, 23 to July 31 and Aug. 1 and 2, when the best fair in Central Kentucky will be held. Those who have enjoyed the hospitality of our West End friends during fair time, or any other time, as far as that is concerned, are looking forward with pleasure to the above date and will be on hand from early till late. Papers that have mentioned the Hustonville fair will oblige us by making mention of the change of date.

ACTING on our suggestion that the people of Stanford make some preparation for the coming of Mayor Weaver and the board of trade of Louisville on the 19th, a meeting was held at the court-house last night, of which W. E. Varnon was made chairman. The council had appointed Mr. Varnon and Mayor Menefee a committee to confer with our business men and make some arrangements for the entertaining of our distinguished guests during their days' stay here and last night Dr. J. K. Varnardale, G. L. Penny and W. W. Withers were selected to act with them. These gentlemen were requested to ascertain at what hour they would remain with us, etc., and report at a meeting to be held at the court-house at 7:30 tomorrow, Wednesday, evening, when it is hoped every citizen of Stanford who can will be present and lend a hand in preparing a program that we will all be glad to carry into execution.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Circuit court began yesterday and for three long, hot weeks Judge Saffley will be found in his seat in the circuit court room dispensing justice. His charge to the grand jury was usual, an able one. It covered every point and would have been printed in full had not the advertisers taken so much of our space. The grand jury is as follows: John Bright, Sr., foreman, J. F. Gover, Geo. Edwards, T. J. Hill, Sr., J. L. Anderson, R. L. Porter, O. P. Huffman, C. C. Gover, W. A. Cash, B. F. Powell, M. B. Eubanks and Alfred Davis.

These gentlemen compose the petit jury: J. M. Coffey, Joe H. White, W. H. Murphy, J. B. Owens, D. K. Farris, John Stone, R. L. Hubble, J. H. McAlister, J. B. Glickerson, D. B. Flint, J. S. Hundley, A. C. Robinson, E. S. Powell, W. P. Grimes, Luther Underwood, W. A. Carson, W. S. McGuire, J. H. Boone, A. D. Root, R. G. Collier, L. G. Hubble, J. E. Hastin, H. C. Anderson and W. H. Parsons.

Of the 26 indictments, principally misdemeanors, on the first day's docket, 10 were continued until the next term. The case against Dudley Vaughn for murder committed nearly 20 years ago was dismissed, the witnesses failing to appear. The murder case against Thomas Fish and Geo. Stephenson was set for Monday next. The case against Mace Scarborough, charged with hog stealing, was dismissed. Charles Brown was acquitted on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and Wallace Walls for the same offense was fined $25 and given 10 days in jail. The proceeding to require of Col. J. T. Adams a peace bond, was continued until next Monday. Matilda Daugherty, who had sued her husband, Daniel, for divorce on account of cruelty, dismissed the proceeding on the strength of Daniel's faithful promise to be good hereafter.

CONCERNING TURNPIKES.

Special Term Lincoln County Court, held June 6th, 1901. Hon. Jas. P. Bailey Judge presiding with the following Justices of the Peace present, to wit: J. A. Singleton, J. H. Raines, W. A. Coffey and W. D. Wallen.
